

GOVERNMENT & CITIZENSHIP

RESEARCH: APPLYING FOR CITIZENSHIP

INSTRUCTION SHEET

INSTRUCTIONS:

An exercise to prepare students to access the resources they may need if they decide to apply for Canadian citizenship. Other resources include: www.cic.bc.ca, www.citzine.ca, www.yourlibrary.ca/community/citizenship, www.canadaonline.about.com, www.craigmarlatt.com/craig/canada, www.canteach.ca, www.kn.pacbell.com/wired.bluewebn

REQUIRED STRUCTURES: letter formatting, telephone gambits, polite requests, filling in forms

REQUIRED VOCABULARY: online, toll-free, call centre, MP,

GROUP SIZE: individual

HANDOUTS: list of suggested starting points, contact checklist

OTHER MATERIALS REQUIRED: telephone, Internet and/or word processor access

RELATED GRAMMAR: general review

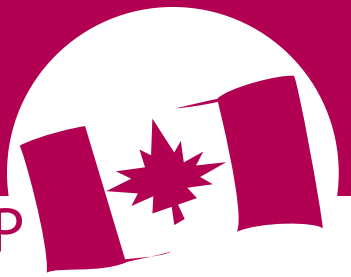

FOLLOW-UP ACTIVITIES:

Jigsaw sharing of information,

“How to” poster board

GOVERNMENT & CITIZENSHIP

RESEARCH: APPLYING FOR CITIZENSHIP

WORKSHEET

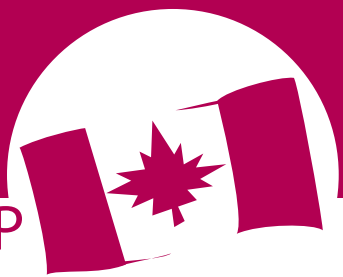

RESEARCH CONTACT LIST

As you look for information about becoming a Canadian citizen, fill in the names, phone number or address and questions you ask of the people you contact. This will help you keep your information organised and easier to use.

CONTACT NAME (ADDRESS/NUMBER)	DATE	REQUEST/MESSAGE	RESPONSE
www.cic.gc.ca
CIC Call Centre 1-888-242-2100

GOVERNMENT & CITIZENSHIP

RESEARCH: APPLYING FOR CITIZENSHIP

WORKSHEET

CANADIAN CITIZENSHIP INFORMATION

TELEPHONE NUMBERS:

CIC Call Centres:

toll-free: 1-888-242-2100

(greater Vancouver: (604) 666-2171)

MAIL ADDRESSES:

The Honourable Denis Codere, P.C., M.P.

Citizenship and Immigration Canada

Ottawa, Ont.

K1A 1L1

ONLINE WEBSITES:

www.cic.gc.ca Citizenship and Immigration Canada website.

www.yourlibrary.ca/community/citizenship Richmond Public Library has practice citizenship tests online.

www.citzine.ca youthful website for Canadians, including descriptions of a citizenship ceremony (follow links to "facts"), and Cdn. history and culture (follow links to "Canadian stuff").

www.canadaonline.about.com